

Dear St. Casimir Clergy and Parishioners,

I am not sure what or how to say and use the proper words to express my gratitude to your warmth welcome, your love that have embraced and encouraged me to continue my diaconate ministry when I was in doubt and in faith crises. You accepted as what I was and without conditionally.

When I came to St. Casimir to serve the Lord through you in September 2015 all of those smile reminded me Christ is present in you that helped me to overcome all of the previous obstacles and challenges in the pass and strongly raised me up to look into the future. I am really regret this is happen to all of us but as I see in you, does not matter where you go God's will shall be done on you whenever you gather two or three in His name.

Also, I will not be far away for you and I will be in Saint James Parish, in Mason. Please keep praying for each other so the Kingdom of God will still present in your heart, on earth to communion us and Him even we will not be face to face with each other, but with him we are One.

God bless you all and I will definitely miss you but will see you in my prayer and if time allow please come to see me at 10:30am Sunday Mass at St. James in Mason.

Again, thank you for all of your support and may the Lord Jesus Christ our God be with you always.

Your servant Deacon,

Chuong Nguyen
